

FIVE ENDANGERED EXECUTIVE ACTIONS

Executive Order 13673: Fair Pay and Safe Workplaces

RM 20
Makes contractors disclose their past labor law violations

Executive Order 13658—Establishing a Minimum Wage for Contractors

Creates $10.10/hr minimum wage for federal contractors & subcontractors

Executive Order 13706—Paid Sick Leave for Workers on Federal Contracts

Requires federal contractors to provide 7 annual paid sick days

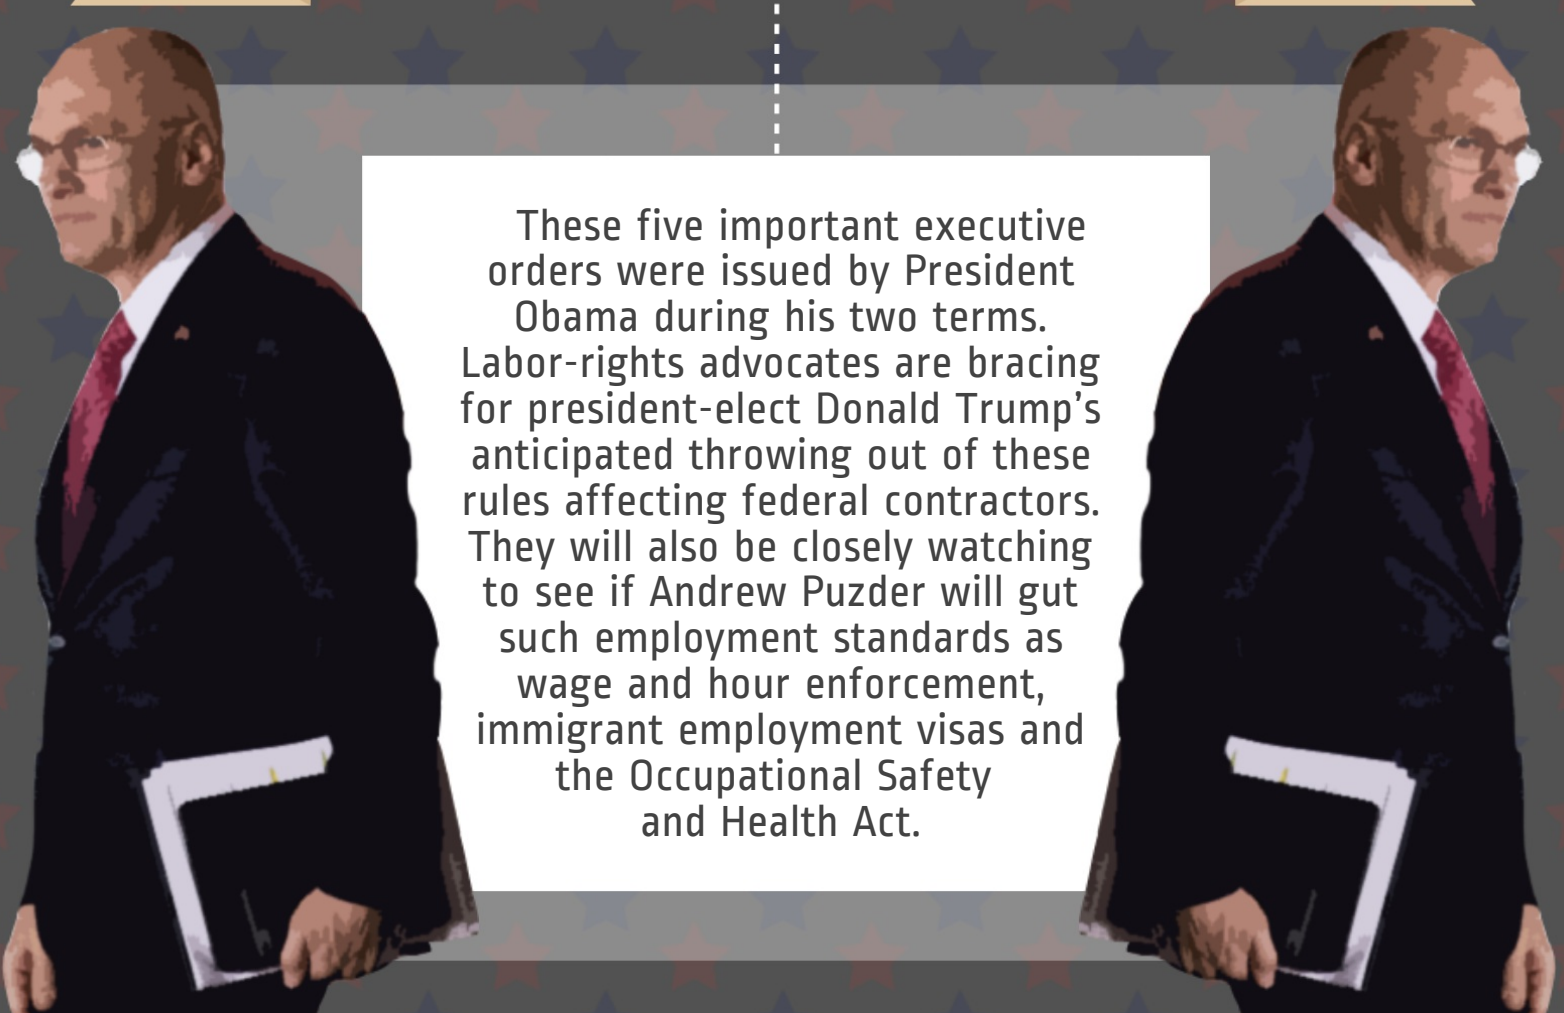

Amendment of Executive Order 11246

Adds LGBT employee rights to federal labor contracts

Executive Order 13496—Notification of Employee Rights Under Federal Labor Laws

Requires contractors to advise employees of their organizing rights

Andrew Puzder is a billionaire fast-food CEO who has been chosen by president-elect Donald Trump to be the next Secretary of Labor.

These five important executive orders were issued by President Obama during his two terms. Labor-rights advocates are bracing for president-elect Donald Trump's anticipated throwing out of these rules affecting federal contractors. They will also be closely watching to see if Andrew Puzder will gut such employment standards as wage and hour enforcement, immigrant employment visas and the Occupational Safety and Health Act.

To Read More:
www.capitalandmain.com